Here is what you can plan on when arriving at ISYM:

1. Arrive between 9:00- 10:00 am. Registration runs from 9:00-11:00 am and students are registered and given an audition time in order of arrival. Students auditioning on the following instruments are encouraged to check-in as early as possible (Preferably between 9:00am-10:00am): flute, clarinet, trumpet, violin, female chorus students.
2. Parking to be determined.
3. Leave your belongings in the car and proceed to the registration line. Only students should be in the registration line.
4. In the registration line, students will receive their room and floor assignments, T-shirts, name badge, and audition time and location.
5. After going through the registration line, you can either warm up for their audition in their assigned space or move into your dorm room depending upon assigned audition time. All students will be given an audition time that allows time for warm up.
6. When moving into dorms, only one parent on the floor at a time.
7. You will receive a "Welcome Downbeat" newsletter in the registration line. Refer to this for a finalized Sunday schedule for your program.
8. Late check-ins: proceed to the ISYM Counseling Office (Room 113 PAR). Registration and late auditions will be taken care of when you arrive.
